The revision work of the Bylaws Ad Hoc Committee was presented and an opportunity was given for questions from the other board members. After a lively discussion President Moscoso said that he expected every member to read these Bylaws carefully as we do anticipate that at the meeting on April 21, 2011, the motion can be made to accept the revision.

The Outreach chairperson, Judy Harris said that the first meeting of the Outreach Committee will be at the Valley Plaza Library, from 6:30pm to 8:00pm in the conference room on March 24, 2011.

A followup report of the Candidates Forum was given by Sarah Ramsawack. She had high praise for the committee of eight (8) board members and nine (9) Stakeholders, and that because they worked well and everything went off smoothly. The four qualified candidates for City Council District #6 were all participating. The candidates were Tony Cárdenas, Rich Goodman, David Barron, and James Cordaro. The forum was conducted by the League of Women Voters. Sarah Ramsawack itemized the expenses involved with the budget up to $2500. The total spent was $2,222.66 which was under budget. The conclusion of the report is how much it takes in time, energy, and money to get the attention of the community.

A report was given by Inez Morin and Sarah Ramsawack who attended the Mayor’s Budget day on Saturday, March 12, 2011, where the results of the budget survey was discussed. The report noted that the Neighborhood Council system may be in jeopardy of further cuts in the annual allotment. This possibility means that we may defend our ability to serve the community by attending meetings of the Budget and Finance Committee at City Hall and speak to the importance of keeping the system in place for our community.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:40pm.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH RAMSAWACK, for Secretary Monica A. Jackson, who was absent
