1 Rubin Borges arrived before the Minutes were approved so the member total was ten.
The Tip-a-Cop Fund-raiser to support the Police Jeopardy Program for High-Risk Youth will be at Bob’s Big Boy on Thursday, April 4, 2013 from 11am to 7pm.

Jackie Keene, deputy for Paul Krekorian of CD#2, spoke enthusiastically about the anticipated over 100 volunteers in a cooperative effort to improve the West side of Whitsett Avenue on the coming Saturday, March 23, 2013, which involves both North-North Hollywood, and Strathern Neighborhood Watch, with both our Council and North Hollywood West NC, and students of USC, and others. The work crew will clear weeds beside the Dept of Transportation from Saticoy South Street on both sides of the United Pacific Railroad, to the corner of Raymer Street in planning for the Fall planting of California native plants that require minimal irrigation.

Sulma Hernandez on staff at the office of CD#6 spoke about the Home Gardening Program by the MEND now enrolling through March 31st at 10641 N. San Fernando Road, in Pacoima. Go to www.mendpoverty.org.

Brian Gavidia, also on staff for CD#6 spoke about how Tony Cardenas, now a member of the House of Representatives for District #29 and has three committee assignments: The Budget Committee, the Natural Resources, and the Oversight and Government Reform Committee.

From DONE, Thomas Soong is one of the six department analysts who assist the NCs. He spoke briefly about Funding, and the Ethics Training which is online for easy compliance.

Capt. John Ruedy, a six-year fire fighter at Station #89, spoke about the work in the community. The annual Open House will be coming on a May Saturday. He said that due to the City Budget cuts that the station has not lost any staffing to date. Capt. Ruedy said that Station #89 has an Urban Search & Rescue Unit.

Dianna Soukounian spoke for the Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation. She explained that there are always at least 14 fire fighters per day at the Station.

Emily Lopez represented the Valley Plaza Library which is in our Council area. The library has had large stuffed chairs looking out into the green area of the Valley Plaza Park, and that the chairs have been worn out by frequent use by the Library patrons. She is requesting help to replace four upholstered chairs that can be wiped clean. Two different style chairs were pictured with prices. One style chair costs $892.00 and the other style cost $1,069.00 per chair.

City Budget Advocate Brandon Pender spoke about the diligence and work of the Advocates, and that they are preparing a White Paper of recommendations to present to the Mayor and the City Council. He stressed that as of this date the Mayor has requested a 20% cut per Neighborhood Council beginning July 1, 2013, and to postpone the Council elections of 2014 to 3 This was a blending of item #2 on the Special Board meeting Agenda.

4 Librarian Kelly Tyler has been promoted and will go to a new location. Her replacement will be in the library on April 4, 2013.

5 Later in the meeting, the Board discussed and took a vote on this issue.
the Fall of that year, and for the Councils to make a sizable payment for their elections.
Brandon Pender stressed the importance of the motion suggested by Jay Handel to oppose these reductions in the ability of the Neighborhood Councils to work for their area and their Stakeholders. The Budget Advocates will meet in person with the Mayor on Wednesday, March 27, 2013.

Claudia Mejia represented Cal-Trans and told about the status of the eleven construction projects on the South-Bound I-5, and that ramp closures will be reopened as soon as possible.

Item #6 of Regular Agenda is—Alexandra Nagy represented the Food & Water Watch, an oversight group, and she explained the impact on Los Angeles tax-payers with the project in San Joaquin Valley and the construction of Water Tunnels. Depending on the actions from the City Council this can cause the cost of water to increase in Los Angeles. Nagy provided a form letter that our Council can sign and send to the City Council to oppose making these rate charges for water that will not reach Los Angeles residents. President Moscoso moved to send a letter to oppose the actions of the City Council, per Jackie Keene, to address the letter to Matt Hale, liaison for CD#2, and the motion was seconded by Zeke Barragan. The vote was 10-yes, 0-no, and 0-abstains.

Item #7 on the Regular Agenda is Laura Nieto who described on Program by RePower. The program is for residents and small business owners and helps to save energy with the same level of functionality. By state mandate, the LADWP must meet a 10% goal of Energy Efficiency by January 1, 2014. We can expect to receive mailers from the DWP toward the end of March.

Item #8 on the Regular Agenda—There were no comments from the public.

Item #9 on the Regular Agenda is Board Member Comments. Sarah Ramsawack began to explain what is happening in the work on the City Budget and reported that only four of our board members had taken the Mayor’s Budget Survey. The Budget Advocates have worked and we can expect that for the first time in our history, that we will be ‘at the table’ at a meeting of the City Council. She was explaining the requests of the Budget Advocates, and wanted to offer the letter that President Moscoso had sent on Email. The manner of discussion did not permit completion. And the vote for action from this NC could not be completed.

Florence Dorick proposes having a site where there can be a Memorial with the American Flag to honor those who served in Afghanistan and in Iraq. She hopes this can be on the agenda in July, 2013. She also wants to support the Genesis House in Pacoima which protects and houses women and children from abusive and violent conditions. She wants to use $2,500 which can provide kitchen ware and tools and security camera.

9 This meeting with the City Council was actually Monday, March 18th, and the presentation was by Dr. Dan Wiseman. He demonstrated two unattempted sources of revenue for the city and asked that our annual allotment be restored to $50,000 per NC, and two other points.
Ben Moore is concerned with the lateness of the hour and we still have not conducted any of our business on the agenda(s). He expressed the need for a better organization on the agendas for us to conduct business.

Jeffrey Garner agrees that the agenda needs to use the meeting time more efficiently.

Zeke Barragan wants to get a list of city services for us to put on the Council Website.

Chuck Loring agrees with Jeffrey Garner and with Ben Moore about the use of agenda time.

OLD BUSINESS
Item #10 on the Agenda--Standing Committee Reports
a. (1) Outreach Committee--ChairPerson, Judy Harris--made the recommendation to expand the existing Pole Banner Display for the NC with another 36 banners, with a change in design, and to add six banners of the ‘old’ design and six banners of the new design, for a total purchase of 48 banners for a total cost of $7249. The recommendation-motion made by the ChairPerson was seconded by Ernie Moscoso. The vote was 7-yes, 4-no, and 0-abstain.

With money movements in the budget by the Treasurer, the total will come from line #302.

(2 Florence Dorick, from the Outreach Committee, moved that the Partners in the Community banners for Camellia Elementary School and the Julie Korenstein School be replaced because of the damage done by the graffiti and the attempts to clean the banners. The work to replace the banners can be done by Thomas Graphics at the total cost of $396.76. By moving funds in the budget the total can be paid from the amended line #401.

b. The Land-Use Committee reported how they have been working to become acquainted with the places and peoples on our designated area. The third and next committee meeting will be in the Fire Dept. Conference Room on Thursday, April 4, 2013. There will be a guest speaker to help the committee members to know better how they can serve their community. The speaker will be Karo Torossian, Planning & Land-Use Deputy for CD#2, Paul Krekorian.

c. Zeke Barragan will advise the next meeting time for City Services and try to have a list of the City Services for the members.
